

PREPARING FOR THE SACRAMENT OF PENANCE

As you prepare for the Sacrament of Reconciliation, ask the Holy Spirit to help you examine your conscience well by prayerfully reviewing your conduct in light of the Commandments and the example of Christ. Ask Him, “Lord, reveal and bring to my mind any sin(s) or area(s) of my life that keep me separated from You or wound my relationship with You?”

The questions in this pamphlet should assist you in making a thorough review. Tell the priest the specific kind of sins you have committed and, to the best of your ability, how many times you have committed them since your last good confession.

To make a good confession, you need to confess any mortal (gravely serious) sins you have committed, since you can obtain forgiveness for your venial (not unto death) sins by sacrifices, acts of charity, prayer, receiving the Eucharist, and other pious actions. Confession of venial sins, however, is indispensable for avoiding sin and advancing in holiness toward Heaven. For a sin to be mortal, three conditions must together be met: “Mortal sin is sin whose object is grave matter and which is also committed with full knowledge and deliberate consent” (CCC 1857). If you are in doubt about whether a sin is mortal or venial, mention it to the priest.

Remember that God loves you as a beloved son or daughter. The point of the Sacrament of Reconciliation is to be restored to a relationship of holiness with this God who loves you. So, as you examine your conscience, focus more on the “God of the commandments” than the “commandments of God.” For that reason, ask God the Holy Spirit to give you real sorrow for the sins you’ve committed out of love for God and a deep resolve, out of sorrow, to try never to commit these sins again.

EXAMINATION OF CONSCIENCE

Catholics for centuries have found it profitable to examine their consciences in light of the Ten Commandments. Penitents are encouraged to expand on them in their prayerful review of their conduct.

- Have I denied the existence of God?
- Have I guarded & protected my faith by staying away from anything that will lead me to sin or disbelief?
- Have I presumed on God’s mercy (purposely commit or persist in a sin/s knowing that God will forgive me anyway)?
- Have I really loved God above all things or have I made other things like: money, clothes, sports, TV, gaming, music, pleasure, peer approval, or a famous celebrity — more important than God?
- Have I made time for God each day in prayer? Do I pray only when I need something or do I also seek to praise and thank Him?
- Have I made a serious effort to get to know my faith well (reading the Bible, Catechism, papal docs., lives of the saints, etc.)?
- Have I failed to forgive someone, or harbored un-forgiveness in my heart?

- Have I endangered my faith in God by any superstitious or evil practices, like witchcraft, séances, Wicca, Ouija boards, fortune tellers, tarot cards, horoscopes, palm reading, etc.?
- Am I wholehearted in accepting and following all of the Church’s teachings or do I only pick and choose the teachings that please me?

GOING TO CONFESSION

The penitent (you) and the priest begin with the sign of the Cross: Make the Sign of the Cross, saying:

In the Name of the Father + and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit.

Then the penitent states:

Bless me, Father, for I have sinned. It has been (however many days, weeks, months or years), since my last confession. And these are my sins: (List them)

The penitent then states his or her sins to the priest...

For the confession to be valid, the penitent must:

1. Confess all of the mortal sins he/she is aware of having committed since the last confession (in kind and number)
2. Be heartily sorry for the sins committed
3. Have a firm purpose of amendment of life (try not to commit the same sins in the future)

After this, the priest will generally give some advice to the penitent and impose a penance.

Then the priest will ask the penitent to make an act of Contrition:

ACT OF CONTRITION

O my God, I am heartily sorry for having offended you, and I detest all my sins because I dread the loss of heaven and the pains of hell; but most of all because they offend you, my God, who are all good and deserving of all my love. I firmly resolve, with the help of your grace, to confess my sins, do penance, and amend my life. Amen.

After this, the priest will absolve the penitent in the following words:

God, the Father of mercies, through the death and resurrection of his Son has reconciled the world to himself and sent the Holy Spirit among us for the forgiveness of sins; through the ministry of the Church may God give you pardon and peace, and I absolve you from your sins, in the name of the Father, and of the Son + and of the Holy Spirit.

The penitent makes the sign of the Cross and answers:
Amen

The priest will then dismiss the penitent by saying: "Go in peace." The penitent will then respond:
Thanks be to God.

Then the penitent immediately fulfills the penance assigned.

HELP IN MAKING A THOROUGH EXAMINATION OF CONSCIENCE AND A GOOD CONFESSION

"Those who have been far away from the Sacrament of Reconciliation and forgiving love, I make this appeal: Come back to this source of grace; Do not be afraid! Christ himself is waiting for you. He will heal you and you will be at peace with God." POPE ST. JOHN PAUL II

When you go to Confession, to this fountain of My mercy, the Blood and Water which came forth from My Heart always flows down upon your soul and exalts it. Every time you go to Confession, immerse yourself entirely in My mercy, with great trust, so that I may pour the bounty of My grace upon your soul. When you approach the confessional, know this, that I Myself am waiting there for you. I am only hidden by the priest, but I Myself act in your soul. Here the misery of the soul meets the God of Mercy. Tell souls that from this fount of mercy, souls draw graces solely with the vessel of trust. If their trust is great, there is no limit to My generosity." ST. FAUSTINA
